

Frank was born in St Catherine's, London in 1886. On 11th August 1914 he enlisted in A Company, AN&MEF, stating that he was a barman and single, giving his father, James William Bond, 37 Pepys Rd, New Cross, London as his next of kin.

Frank returned from Rabaul and was discharged, term expired, on 4th March 1915, having completed 206 days service.

On 28th September 1915 he again enlisted and was posted as an Acting Sergeant with D Coy Depot Battalion, transferring to C Coy, 19th Battalion from where he was discharged on 3rd Feb 1916 at the request of his wife. In his enlistment papers he listed his wife, May Bond, 398 Elizabeth Rd, Redfern as his next of kin.

On 24th June 1933 Frank died in The Western Suburbs Hospital from injuries received after being knock down by a motor vehicle. He is buried at Rookwood Cemetery. It is believed that Frank may have had a son, James Alexander Bond.
