

Henry was born at Parramatta in 1865, the son of James Blair Hazlett and his wife Mary, nee Griffin. In 1890 he married Annie McKeown.

He served for many years in the Army Medical Corps (CMF) and so when he enlisted in the AMC component of the AN&MEF on 12th August 1914 he brought with him his CMF rank of Warrant Officer. He stated that he was a coach worker by trade and was 49 when he signed up. He also had three children at this stage. He returned from Rabaul and was discharged, term expired, on 15th April 1915.

On 30th April 1915 Henry joined the No3 General Hospital, AMC, with the rank of Warrant Officer, leaving for the Middle East aboard the MOOLTAN on 15th May. The unit was stationed on Lemnos where they attended to the wounded from Gallipoli.

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P11305.012

#AGH on Lemnos in 1915. Henry is second from left

3AGH returned to Alexandria on 27th Jan 1916 and Henry was made Quartermaster with the rank on Hon Lt.

In Egypt 1916. Henry 2nd from right, middle row.

On 16th Feb 1917 he was transferred to the 12th Field Ambulance and on 1st March was given the rank of Hon Captain.

12th Field Ambulance, France 1918. Henry far right, front row.

On 7th April 1918 he was Mentioned in Sir Douglas Haig's Dispatched (MID) and returned to the UK on 17th August 1918.

On 19th October 1918 he left the UK aboard the SARDINIA, arriving in Melbourne on 27th December 1918, suffering from dysentery and enteritis.

His appointment to the AIF was terminated on 6th Nov 1920.

Henry died at Randwick on 30th April 1920.