

Frederick was born in Kiandra in 1890, the son of Hugh Fraser and his wife Matilda, nee Crowfoot. In both 1914 and 1916 there were warrants issued for his arrest in respect of the failure to provide for his child by Rebecca Parker.

On 11th August 1914 he joined A Company, AN&MEF, stating that he was a cabinet maker, and single, giving his parents at 232A Glebe Point Rd, Glebe as his next of kin. In Rabaul he was transferred to the Army Medical Corps on 17th November. He returned to Sydney and was discharged, term expired on 4th March 1915.

On his AIF enlistment on 2nd August 1915 as part of the 14th Reinforcements, 1st Light Horse Field Ambulance, regimental number 8842, he stated that he was a Hospital Attendant, obviously from his time with the AN&MEF. He left Australia on the BALLARAT on 16th Feb 1916 and at Abbassia on 3rd April he transferred to the 3rd Australian Hospital.

On 25th September 1916 he left Egypt for the UK and then to France on 11th April 1917 aboard the LONDONDERRY. On 30th July 1918 he was promoted corporal (cook) and in 1918 married Gladys Rosamund Orme at Steyning, Essex. On 12th July 1919 he boarded the INDARRA with his wife, arriving in Australia on 9th September. Frederick was discharged from the AIF on 1st November 1919.

Frederick died at Katoomba on 21st September 1929.
