

Cecil was born in North Sydney on 12th October 1894, the son of Stephen Stubbing Harber and his wife Ada, nee Trenbath.

At the time of joining E Company, AN&MEF he was serving in the 18th CMF Battalion and was a jeweller by trade. He gave his father at 84 Alexander St, North Sydney as his next of kin.

Cecil returned from Rabaul and was discharged, term expired, on 28th Jan 1915 after completing 171 days service.

On 19th August he joined the AIF but on 1st November he produced a doctor's certificate stating that he had malaria and was unfit for overseas service. He was discharged, medically unfit, on 5th November. During that year he married Una Jean Heden.

On 11th October 1916 he joined the NSW Public Service in the Government Stores Department.

On 20th Jan 1942 he re-enlisted, service number N388205, resigning on 19th Jan 1942 to become part time, getting a new service number of N46379. He served with the 7th Battalion Volunteer Defence Corps.

On 10th May 1946 he resigned from the Dept of Labour and Industry and Social Welfare and died at Northbridge on 10th December 1972.